Elder Don R Carlile
Heber, Utah

Roe Carlile Son of Georege Robert Carlile and Marion Ruth Neil Carlile. Born March 30, 1903 at Charleston, Utah,the homestead of George Carlile a pioneer of 1859.Patent was signed by Ulyses Grant, to my grandfather. And later was purchased by my parents in 1888 and a home built by my father.Pansy Winterton daughter of William Heber Winterton and Agnes Webster Winterton. Born June 21, 1905 at Charleston, Utah,my Grandfather William Winterton was a pioneer and settled in Charleston,in 1864.We both grew up in social and church together, our homes was one mile apart.Elementry and High School we both attended by walking or by team and wagon, and bus and bob sliegh.While in High School leather work was done, making a hand sewed harness which I had from 19 18 until 1958,it was displayed at many fairs.And later sold to a Mr DeFay of Hanna, Utah.Many leather tools were kept and used to repair saddles, bridels, canvas, etc.The Royal Ellis Shoe repair came for sale in Heber and was purchased May 7, 1958. The name was changed tc(Valley Shoe) selling mens, Ladies, and childrens shoes, as well as repairing and orthepedic work.In 1963 another buisness was purchased in Vernal, Utah from George Isley who wanted to retire.My son Don and Royal Ellis operated the Heber shop. And the Vernal shop by me, commuting each week on Monday morning, returning home week end.It became a thriving buisness modren equipment was installed, and western boots was my specialty.It grew from Vernal to eastward as far as Denver, Colorado.In 1964 son Don recieved a missionary call to New Zealand.The Heber shop and equipment was sold to Broadway Shoe for a new shop in Salt Lake City.And in 1966 Pansy & me had a call to serve in the Texas mission.This buisness in Vernal was closed and the equipment we delivered to Denver area.a sewing machine, hand tools and small repair was kept.Any family repairs needed done is enjoyed by me. Pansy has been a great help in many ways doing some repairs when needed. We both have ejoyed our lives together,and especialy our church calls as we have servered in the Provo Temple since 1974 until now.
